BY THE BIVOUAC'S FITFUL FLAME.

Words by WALT WHITMAN.

Music by HAMILTON HARTY.

Very stately and solemn.

Voice.

Piano.

By the bivouac's

sempre legato.

fitful flame, A procession winding around me,

solemn and sweet and slow,
but first I note, The tents of the sleeping army, the woods and fields' dim outline, The darkness lit by spots of kindled fire, the silence.

By the Muses' Pitiful Flame.
Like a phantom far or near an occasional figure moving;

The shrubs and trees, (as I

lift my eyes they seem to be straitly watching me;

While wind in procession thoughts, O wondrous and tender

By the Bivouac's Fitful Flame.
thoughts, Of life and death, of home and the past and loved, and of those that are far away;

solemn and slow procession there as I sit on the ground,

By the bivouac's fitful flame.

By the Bivouac's Fitful Flame.
