If you have a sweetheart,
Love her in the Spring,
That's the time for loving,
When birds begin to sing.

If you have a sweetheart,
Hold her in your heart,
That's the place to hold her,
When buds begin to start.

If you have a sweetheart,
Never let her miss
Kisses, in the Springtime,
For Spring's the time to kiss.

If you have a sweetheart,
Blossoms on the bough,
Love her in the Springtime,
For Spring will teach you, how.

Allegro vivace

If you have a sweet-heart, Love her in the Spring,
That's the time for loving, When birds begin to sing.

If you have a sweetheart, Hold her in your heart,

That's the place to hold her, When buds begin to
If you have a sweet heart,

Never let her miss kisses, in the Spring-time, For Spring's the time to kiss. If you have a sweetheart,

Blossoms on the bough, Love her in the Spring-time, For Spring will teach you, how.
