In My Garden

When the thrushes in my garden see you come,
O they cease them for a moment and are dumb;
Then they break to song anew
For the very joy of you,—
When the thrushes in my garden see you come.

When the roses in my garden hear you nigh,
O they droop their heads a moment and are shy;
Then they break to bloom anew
For the very love of you,—
When the roses in my garden hear you nigh.

Says:

Duna is without doubt one of the most effective songs I have ever known. Without a “cheap” line in it, it has that wonderful appeal that reaches the heart of every listener. The day I received that song I shall always count a most fortunate one for me.

John McCormack, Francis Rogers, Cantor Joseph Rosenblatt

And scores of other leading singers enthuse over this most charming song of recent years.
