CHARLES T. GRIFFES

TWO POEMS

By

John Masefield

Composed for Voice
With Piano Accompaniment

"An Old Song Re-sung"

High Voice  Low Voice

Price, 60 cents, net

"Sorrow of Mydath"

Medium Voice

Price, 60 cents, net

(Prices apply to U. S. A.)

G. SCHIRMER, INC.

New York
An Old Song Re-sung

John Masefield*

Voice

Giocoso, ma non troppo presto

I saw a ship a-sailing, a-

Piano

f

sailing, sailing, With emeralds and rubies and

p sapphires in her hold; And a be-

Copyright, 1920 by G. Schirmer, Inc.
Printed in the U.S.A. bawling at the railing, piping thro' a silver call that cresc.

had a chain of gold; The summer wind was falling and the tall ship rolled.
saw a ship a-steering, a-steering, a-steering, With roses in red thread worked up-on the sails; With sacks of purple amethysts, the spoil of buccaneering, Skins of musky yellow wine, and silks in bales, Her merry men were cheering, hauling on the braces.

I saw a ship a-sinking, apiù animato sinking, a-sinking, With glittering seawater

splashing on her decks, With seamen in her spirit room

cresc.

sempre accel.

sing-ing songs and drink-ing, Pull-ing clar-et bottles down, and

f sempre accel. cresc.
knocking off the necks;

broken glass was chinking as she sank among the wrecks.
To Helen

Edgar Allan Poe

"O. G. Sonneck, Op. 16 No. 1"

"Thou Wouldst Be Loved?"

Edgar Allan Poe

"O. G. Sonneck, Op. 16 No. 2"

"A Dream Within A Dream"

Edgar Allan Poe

"O. G. Sonneck, Op. 16 No. 4"