SONG OF THE WORLD ADVENTURERS

From the Music for the Masque of St. Louis
Chorus for Mixed Voices

Words by
PERCY MACKAYE

Music by
F. S. CONVERSE.

Soprano.
Alto.
Tenor.
Bass.

Largamente e maestoso.

1. A star, a star in the West! Out of the wave it
2. A star, a star in the night! Out of our hearts it

Copyright, 1914, by The H.W. Gray C° world farthest; Where the mesas scorched and the moor-lands froze, It wonderful light; Where our hovels gloomed and our hunger spawned, It
world farthest; Where the mesas scorched and the moor-lands froze, It
wonderful light; Where our hovels gloomed and our hunger spawned, It

Modern Series No. 36.
lured us without rest:  With yearning, yearning healed our passionate blight:  And burning, burning

Ah!
Ah!
It sang as it beckoned us, A
It clanged as it kindled us, Of a

Ah!
Ah!
It sang as it beckoned us, A
It clanged as it kindled us, Of a

Modern Series No. 56.
music vast, adventurous America! America!

freedom proud, and perilous America! America!

music vast, adventurous America! America!

freedom proud, and perilous America! America!

Modern Series No. 56.