My heart, a-lass, no voice can find, Save but a sigh, save but a sigh; To tell the love it holds en-

No song have I, no song have I. O
Philomel, with passion burning, I turn to thee, I turn to thee, No song have I to voice my yearning, Sing thine for me, sing thine for me!
Thy strain holds ev'ry listener near thee, Tho' night be long, Tho' night be long. The sleeping rose a-wakes to hear thee. In raptured song, in raptured song. While silently I stand apart And vainly sigh, and vainly sigh; Despite the music in my heart, No song have I, no song have I. O
