In My Garden

When the thrushes in my garden see you come,
O they cease them for a moment and are dumb;
    Then they break to song anew
    For the very joy of you,—
When the thrushes in my garden see you come.

When the roses in my garden hear you nigh,
O they droop their heads a moment and are shy;
    Then they break to bloom anew
    For the very love of you,—
When the roses in my garden hear you nigh.

Duna is without doubt one of the most effective songs I have ever known. Without a "cheap" line in it, it has that wonderful appeal that reaches the heart of every listener. The day I received that song I shall always count a most fortunate one for me.

John McCormack, Francis Rogers, Cantor Joseph Rosenblatt

and scores of other leading singers enthuse over this most charming song of recent years.
