PIANO-FORTES.

WHAT THE GREAT SINGERS AND MUSICIANS SAY OF THEM.

PATTI. I have used the Pianos of every celebrated maker, but give yours the preference over all.

NIELSON. I shall take every opportunity to recommend and praise your Instruments.

KELLOGG. For the last six years your Pianos have been my choice for the Concert Room and my own house.

CARY. I feel that everyone is fortunate who owns a Weber Piano.

CAMPAANINI. The richness and purity of tone, the capacity to portray feeling, if I may be allowed to express myself so, and the wonderful power of expression characterizing your Piano, render the same invaluable to an appreciative artist.

LUCCA. Your Uprights are extraordinary Instruments and deserve their great success.

STRAUSS. Your Piano astonishes me; I assure you that I have never yet seen any Piano which equals yours.

CAPOL. I recommend the Weber Piano in the highest terms, and especially for the voice.

ROSSINI. For sympathetic purity of tone, durability, and extraordinary power, evenness of action and beauty of touch, the Weber Piano surpasses any piano I have ever seen, either in America or in Europe, and I have used the pianos of all reputed first-class makers. I am not surprised that great artists prefer them, as they are truly noble Instruments.

CARRENO. I am not surprised that every great artist prefers the Weber Piano; they are truly noble Instruments, and meet every requirement of the most exacting artist.

GERSTER. Thanks for the Grand Piano you have sent me. I like it very much, and find it very excellent. I shall be happy to recommend your fine Instruments on every occasion to my friends.

ABOTT. There are no other Instruments in the world that sustain the voice like the Weber Piano, and I can only wish that you may for many years wear the laurels, and enjoy the greatest success which you so richly deserve.

WELLI. Madame Parepa called your Piano the finest in the United States. I fully endorse that opinion. They have no rival anywhere.

BRISTOW. To me the Weber Piano contains everything that can be wished for in an Instrument.

PIANOS

Are constructed from the musician's standpoint, as well as that of the mechanic; hence these instruments are distinguished from all others by that pure and sympathetic quality of tone that contains the greatest musical possibilities; that consummation of mechanical excellence that admits of the

MOST DELICATE AND IMPRESSIVE EFFECTS,

while insuring the durability of the instrument, and that uniform superiority that enhances the pleasure of both performer and listener. Constructed from the very best materials and employing only the most skillful workmanship, these Instruments combine the highest achievements in the art of Piano making, and are comprehensively the best now manufactured.
