Molto allegro marziale. (With much vigour.)

Music by
WILFRID SANDERSON.

Drake is going West, lad,
His ships are in the bay,
Five and twenty sail all told,
Ready for the fray! Oh!

Hear it pass from lip to lip
"Drake is off again!"
Aye,
Drake's away at break o' day, To sweep the Spanish Main!

Then here's to the Spanish Main—And here's to the foe!

And here's to Drake and his merry men, Who'll never come back to Devon again, Till they've laid the enemy low.

Slower.

Some are going West, lad, Wholly near win home again.

Molto tranquillo.

Some will sleep their long, long sleep, Neath the Spanish Main!

But whatsoever be our fate—Come what may, say I,

With Drake we'll go, for Drake we'll fight—With Drake we'll win—
