IN THE PASHA'S GARDEN

By John Laurence Seymour

A one-act opera first produced at the Metropo- litan Opera House in 1914 during the famous era when both 1906 and 1937 in which the impresario Giulio Cattani directed every effort in a endeavor to estab- lish American operatic music on a sound basis.

DONNA JUANITA by Franz von Suppe

(Revised by Arthur Bodansky)

A comic opera from the pen of one of its most famous composers, "Donna Juanita" was first produced at the Metropolitan Opera House in 1911 in its present revis ed form under Bodansky's direction. The revised and excellent English translation brings a new and exhilarated interest.

MERRY MOUNT by Howard Hanson

One of the outstanding of purely American operas, "Merry Mount" received its first performance at the Metropol- itan Opera House in 1914. The book, by Robert Stokely, is based on Harri- thorne's "The Maypole of Merry Mount". The work is superfine musicably and dramatically and remains a high-water mark in the field of contemporary operatic literature.

PARSIFAL by Richard Wagner

(English version by Henry E. Krehbiel)

At the instigation of Arthur Bodansky, who, during the last war German opera was sung at the Metropolitan Opera House in English, the dean of American music critics was invited to fashion a singable English version to this greatest of the Wagner music-dramas. It is the only English setting which has succeeded in public performance. The piano reduction is the authentic Krehbiel edition.
