April Ecstasy

VERSE BY Madison Cawein

A song in which will be found that pulsing, vibrant quality that made the composer's earlier success "In Maytime" a famous popular song. Here is a veritable gem, not in verse alone—not in music alone, but in the perfect blending of lyric and melody.

April calling, April calling, April calling me.
I hear the voice of April here in each old apple tree;
Bee boom and wild perfume, and wood-sick melody.
O hark, my heart, and hear my heart, the April, ecstasy.

There runs a whisper thro' the woods, the word of bough to bough,
A sound of dead things dawning green, of beauty waking now;
Fern-bower and wild-wood flower, each one a prayer or vow.
O see, my heart, O look, my heart, where earth crowns white her brow.

O kiss, that fills the field with flowers and thrills with green each grove,
Dream down into this heart again and grow to songs thereof;
Wild songs in singing throughs that swift shall mount above.
And like to birds, with lyric words, take earth, and heav'n with love!
