FAMOUS WORKS OF EUROPEAN NOVELISTS.

Red Cloth. Gilt. 3s. 6d. Nett.

MAURUS JÓKAI.

THE GREEN BOOK; or, Freedom Under the Snow.

"A great book."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Sixth Edition.

PRETTY MICHAEL.

"A series of wonderfully striking incidents. We admire the work of Maurus Jókai."—The Times.

TALES FROM JÓKAI.

With Biography of Dr. Jókai brought up-to-date.

"Jókai is before all things a teller of tales, and by the common consent of its best Hungarian critics, his short stories contain some of his best work."—Daily Telegraph.

Shortly.

HERIBERT RAU.

Third Edition.

THE TONE KING.

A Life Romance of the famous Musician, WOLFGANG MOZART.

"Mozart was the wonder of the world, and the narrative of his achievements as boy and man, deftly built up to completeness by Mr. Rau, is delightful reading throughout."—Daily Telegraph.

To be followed at intervals

By the best works of MAXIM GORKY, TOLSTOI, MARZYA RODZIEVICZ, KALMAN MIKSZATH, SIENKIEWICZ, ETC., ETC.

LONDON:

Jarrold & Sons, 10 & 11, Warwick Lane, E.C.
THE TONE KING
A LIFE ROMANCE OF THE FAMOUS MUSICIAN
WOLFGANG MOZART
FROM THE GERMAN OF HERIBERT RAU
Author of "Beethoven," "Carl Maria Von Weber," etc., etc.
TRANSLATED BY J. E. ST. QUINTIN RAE
The translator of Hector Malot's Novels, etc.

LONDON
JARROLD & SONS, 10 & 11, WARWICK LANE, E.C.