BEYOND THE DAWN

Song

The Words by

FRED. E. WEATHERLEY

The Music by

WILFRID SANDERSON

Price 50 cents net

Orchestral Accompaniment to this Song is Now Published in the Key of D - Price 60c
BEYOND THE DAWN

Words by FRED E. WEATHERLY

Music by
WILFRID SANDERSON

Maestoso

VOICE

PIANO

ma piano

f sostenuto

What of the day, O weary eyes? The day is hard and long, wind across the fairest skies; It hath a dreamy song

Copyright MCMXIII by Boosey & Co.

Copyright renewed 1938 by Boosey & Co weary eyes, be comforted, The dear God knoweth best, However long the day may be, The night shall give us rest. What of the night, O aching hearts? The night may bring you pain, Your dearest dreams may mock at you, Your prayer may seem in vain—O aching hearts, be satisfied, Look up and have no fear,—The saddest night, the darkest tide, The dawn will soon be here...

Quasi recit.

What of the night, the long, long night, The passing bells that call, The Valley of the Shadow, And the grass that covers all? Be not afraid, God's arm is nigh, To guide you through the gloom, The morning of Eternity Begins beyond the tomb, The allargando

morn-ing of E-ter-ni-ty Be-gins be-yond the tomb...

a tempo.
OTHER RECENT SUCCESSFUL SONGS
BY EMINENT COMPOSERS

THE PROMISE OF LIFE

Words by CLIFTON BISHAM.
Music by FREDERIC H. COXEN.

Lord, make me strong, to work to live,
Lord, teach my heart all others to forgive:
As in Thy Name for:
given I may be, Lord, make me strong in love and love but Thee.
Lord, make me strong in love and love but Thee.

THE LORD IS IN HIS HOLY TEMPLE

Words from THE PSALMS.
Music by ISABEL HIGHTON.

Copyright MCXXXI by Boosey & Co., Ltd.

Copyright MCXXXII by Boosey & Co., Ltd.