Moderato

It's a mighty good world, So it is, dear lass, When ev'n the worst is said. There's a smile and a tear, A sigh and a cheer, But better be living than dead; A joy and a pain, a

C. 6933 - 5
There's comfort and rest, and the warmth of your breast,
And little ones climbing my knee. Oh! there's fire-light and song,

The world may be wrong! Its empires may topple and fall:

My home is my care — if gladness be there, It's a mighty good world, after O heart of pure gold! I have made you a fold, It's shel-tered, sun-fond-led and warm. O lit-tle ones, rest! I have fashioned a nest; Sleep on! you are safe from the storm. For there's no foe like fear, and there's no friend like cheer, And sun-shine will flash at your call; So crown Love as King and let us all sing: "It's a might-y good old world, aft-er all.

LILIAN RAY.

There is a land where in our truth we plight ed.

Happy the memory of that golden day!

Heart beat with heart, and souls were united.
