PSALM II.—Quare fremuerunt gentes?

A triumphal Ode of the Lord’s Anointed, who is set in Zion to rule and judge.

Appointed for use on Easter Day.

WHY do the heathen so rage to gather: and why do the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth stand up * and the rulers take counsel to gather: against the Lord * and his Anointed.

3 Let us break their bonds asunder: and cast their way their cords from us.

4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them: to scorn: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath: and vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Sion.

mf 7 I will preach the law * whereof the Lord hath said unto me: Thou art my Son * this day have I begotten thee.

8 Desire of me * and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance: and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of iron: and break them in pieces like a potter’s vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore * O ye kings: be learned ye that are judges of the earth.

11 Serve the Lord in fear: and rejoice unto him with reverence.

12 Kiss the Son lest he be angry * and so ye perish from the way: if his wrath be kindled (yea but a little) * bless-ed are all they that put their trust in him.

Gloria.
