THE ORGAN ACCOMPANIMENT OF THE CHURCH SERVICES.

By H. W. Richards, Professor of the Organ and Choir Training at the Royal Academy of Music ...

Paper covers, net 3s. 6d.; cloth boards, net 5s.

This book is intended as a practical guide to the Organ Student in his very essential work of Accompaniment. It contains chapters on: Matters incidental to the Art of Accompaniment— Accompaniments of Hymns—Psalms and Anthems—Variety in Accompanying Hymns and Psalms—Rejoicings and Monostichs—Anthems and Settings of the Canticles—Choral Communion Service—Prefaces to Anthems and extempore Voluntaries—Oriental Sacred Songs and Tentatives—Organ and Orchestra—Finale.

The various points in the Church Services are dealt with in turn, in a clear and concise manner, with numerous illustrations from Church Music of all periods. An Appendix is added, consisting of a short sketch of every Psalm in the Psalter, considered from the point of view of the Accompaniment.
