THE PIPES OF PAN ARE CALLING.

Song.

Words by ARTHUR WIMPERIS.

Music by
LIONEL MONCKTON.

Allegretto.

With a melody entralling,

Lead the woodland echoes ring.
Hark! the pipes of Pan are calling With a merry lilt and swing.

Hear their joyous carolling,

Flowing, growing, rising, falling; Youth and Joy must have their fling.

When the pipes of Pan are calling! Ah!

Pan.  So fol low, fol low, fol low, The mer-ry, mer-ry pipes of Pan, The mag ic reed That charms at need The heart of maid and man.  Ah!

-way, a-way, they seem to say, And catch us if you can! Come,
Follow, follow, Where they lead, The merry, merry pipes of Pan!
Load they laugh beside the fountain, Shril they mingle with the breeze,

Sweet they call across the mountain,

Soft they whisper through the trees,

Low they murmur with the bees, Blithe-ly where the brook goes brawling.
Nature's fingers touch the keys When the pipes of Pan are calling!

Ah!

REFRAIN.

The pipes of Pan... So

follow, follow, follow, The merry, merry pipes of Pan,
