I'VE SUNG MY SONG
A Song for Low Voice
With Piano Accompaniment

By EMMA L. ASHFORD

With Words by
WILLIAM R. LUKE

Price, 40 cents, net
(No Discount)

New York · G. SCHIRMER · Boston
I've Sung my Song

William R. Luke

E. L. Ashford

Andante

I've lived my day, I've sung my song, I've fought and loved and striv'n; I've fought and loved and striv'n; The Copyright, 1918, by G. Schirmer com- ing night is black and long- is black and long;

meet it calm, un- shriv'n.

Più mosso

I've fought and wrought as best I might,  And struck no coward blow,

ben marcato

loud

loud

loud

loud
man's a man, a fight's a fight; a man's a man, a fight's a fight;

This law is all I know, this law is all I know.

And some sweet days of love I've had, Dear days of calm and pure delight; Then,

Più mosso

O defiant soul, be glad, be glad, defiant soul, be

Più lento

glad, And O, my Love, my Love, goodnight!