'Way down South

An azure sky, a warm brown face,
    Soft black eyes and a dazzling mouth,
A red bandanna, touched with gold—
    And this is the color, 'way down South.
A bird that plays on a mocking flute,
    A meking drawl from a smiling mouth,
A tinkling banjo hid in the shade—
    And that is the music, 'way down South.
