And Lo! My Ships

Words by George Arnold

Music by
Louis Schmidt

The John Church Company
Cincinnati New York Chicago
Leipsic London
To Miss Lilla Urmond

"And lo! my Ships"

GEORGE ARNOLD

Con moto ma non troppo

LOUIS SCHMIDT

Gray distance hid each shining

Words used by permission of Houghton, Mifflin Co.

Copyright MCMIX by The John Church Company

International Copyright

18888-6
"skil, by ruthless breezes borne from me.
And less'ning fading
doe poco dimin, poco a poco faint and pale, my ships went forth to Where misty breakers moanfully"
Con moto poco d'ecress.

Più tranquillo

day a song is on my lips, earth seems a paradise to me, For God is good, and lo! my ships are iss16-8

Coming home from sea.

For

God is good and lot my ships are

Coming home from sea.