A New Christmas Carol

"Over Bethlehem Town"

FOR

Soprano Solo and
Children's Chorus or Choir

Words by
JANE DE FOREST SHELTON

Music by
J. W. JOHNSTON

Published by
J. W. JOHNSTON
P. O. BOX 578
ROCHESTER, N. Y.
"Over Bethlehem Town."
(Carol.)

Words by JANE DE FOREST SHELTON.
Music by J.W. JOHNSTON.

Andante
SOPRANO SOLO

VOICE

On What did the first Christmas stars look
And What was the song through the heavens
Then What is the message that we receive

PIANO

(tutti ad lib.)

donw, O-ver Beth-le-hem town, O-ver Beth-le-hem town, On rang, As the An-gels sang, As the An-gels sang, And ceive, On each Christmas eve, On each Christmas eve, Then

What did the first Christmas stars look down, In that far a-way
What was the song through the heavens rang, In that far a-way
What is the message that we receive, From that far a-way

Copyright 1912 by J.W. Johnston, Rochester, N.Y.
Chorus for Choir over page.

CHILDRENS CHORUS (luhlu)

Medley

Holy Land?

On a manager rude where a
It was Glory to God in the
It is love and its peace and to

Mother smiled, On a Holy Child, on a Highest then, And of peace to men, and do Gods will, Like the Christ Child still, like the Holy Child, On a manager rude where a peace among men, It was Glory to God in the Christ Child still, It is love and its peace and to Mother smiled, In that far away Holy land.

Highest then, In that far away Holy land.
do Gods will, Like the Christ in the Holy land.

903
CHORUS for CHOIR.

On a manager rude where a Mother
It was Glory to God in the Highest
It is love and its peace and to do God smiled, On a Holy Child, on a Holy then, And of peace to men, and peace a mo will, Like the Christ Child still, like the Christ Chi

Child, On a manager rude where a Mother men, It was Glory to God in the Highest still, It is love and its peace and to do God smiled, In that far away Holy land.

then, In that far away Holy land.
will, Like the Christ in the Holy land.

A Suggestion: The third or last verse of the Chorus is particularly effective when rendered,