Moderato.

There's an old fashioned house in an old fashioned street In a quaint little old fashioned town; There's a street where the cobble stones harass the feet, As it straggles up hill and then down; And, though to and fro through the world I must go, My heart while it beats in my breast, Where'er I may roam, To that old fashioned home Will fly back like a bird to its nest.
In that old fashioned house in that old fashioned street
Dwell a sostenuto
dear little, old fashioned pair. I can colta parte.
see their two faces, so tender and sweet, And I

sotto voce
I love ev’ry wrinkle that’s there.
I love ev’ry mouse in that old fashioned house in the street that runs up hill and down.
Each stone and each stick, Ev’ry cobble and brick in that quaint, lit’le, old fashioned town.

THE LITTLE THINGS THAT TELL

Words by FRED. BOWDER
Music by A. H. BERRETT
Composer of "Daddy's" & "The Gift"

Andante con espressione

A little word of comfort When things are going wrong, A little catch of melody From some old-fashioned song: A little pressure of the hand When saying "Farewell," The whispered word at parting, Are the little things that tell.

Says:-

Duna is without doubt one of the most effective songs I have ever known. Without a "cheap" line in it, it has that wonderful appeal that reaches the heart of every listener. The day I receive that song I shall always count a most fortunate one for me.
