five eyes smouldering green and bright:

Squeaks from the flour-sack, squeaks from where The cold wind stirs on the empty stair, Squeaking and scampering, ev'rywhere. Then down they pounce, now in, now out, At whisking tail, and sniffing snout. While lean old Hans he snores away Till peep of light at break of day Then up he climbs to his creaking mill Out come his cats all grey with meal
