think of the twilight songs you sang And the boy you built to rest, The wee little boy with tousled head, That long, long ago was thine; I wonder if sometimes you long for that boy, O little mother of mine!

And now he has come to man's estate, Grown stal-wart in bod-y and strong You'd hard-ly know that he was the lad You buil'd with your slum-ber song The years have al- ter'd the form and the life, But the heart is un-changed by time. And still he is only your boy as of old, O little mother of mine, O little mother of mine!
