When Barney Comes Over the Hill

The Verse by
J. P. O'Reilly

The Music by Walter Meyrowitz

High Voice 6 Low Voice

The John Church Company
Cincinnati New York Chicago
Leipzig London
I'm not finding fault with the morning,
I'm not finding fault with the day.
But the time I love best is the evening,
When the skies are all turning to grey.
'Tis then that my heart is so happy, I hardly can keep it still,
For trouble and care are forgotten,
When Barney comes over the hill.
Ah! When Barney comes over the hill,
To meet me down here by the mill,
There's no light in the skies like the love in his eyes,
My Barney from over the hill!

Hush now! Is that him I hear whistling?
'Tis he has the heart that is light,
And the foot that will make the floor tremble
At the dance in the village to-night.
Something tells me he'll soon be proposing,
If he does I'll say: "yes" with a will.
For och! where's the colleen that wouldn't For my Barney from over the hill.
Ah! When Barney comes over the hill,
To meet me here by the mill,
There's no light in the skies like the love in his eyes,
My Barney from over the Hill.

—J. P. O'Reilly.
When Barney comes over the Hill

J. P. O'Reilly

WALTER MEYROWITZ

Allegro vivace

not finding fault with the morning, I'm not finding fault with the poco a poco rall.

day, But the time I love best is the evening, When the

Copyright, MCMX, by The John Church Company International Copyright allegretto

Ah, when Barn-ey come over the hill, To

trou-ble and care are for-got-ten, When Barn-ey come o-ver the

a tempo

skies are all turn-ing to grey,
'Tis then that my heart is so hap-py I hard-ly can keep it still,

For

(slower)  poco rall.

when Barn-ey come o-ver the rise.  p a tempo hill. Ah, when Barn-ey come o-ver the hill, meet me down here by the mill, There's no light in the skies, like the love in his eyes, My Barney from over the hill!

Allegro vivace

now! Is that him I hear whistling? 'Tis he has the heart that is light, And the foot that will make the floor trem - ble At the dance in the vil - lage to - night Some - thing tells me he'll soon be pro - pos - ing, If he does I'll say "yes" with a will. For och! where's the col - leen that would - n't For Barn - ey from o - ver the hill. Ah When Barn-ey comes o'er the hill, To meet me down here by the mill. There's no light in the skies like the love in his eyes, My Barn-ey from o-ver the hill. When Barn-ey comes o'er the hill, To meet me down here by the mill. There's no light in the skies like the love in his eyes, My Barney from o-ver the hill.