A Swing Song.

Low Voice

Words and Music by REGINALD De KOVEN, Op.190, No. 3.

Allegretto Scherzando.

Out in the meadow be -

Over the meadow the neceth the trees, swing high, swing low. Swing high, swing low.

shadoes creep, swing high, swing low. Swing high, swing low.

Voices of summer float down the breeze, Swing high, swing low.
Lulling the dew-laden flowers to sleep, Swing high, swing low.

Flowers are woe-ing the whispering wind; Swing low, swing high.
Night in-gales out of the twilight call, Swing low, swing high.

Now while we're swinging leave care behind, Swing low, swing high.
Moon-light and mystery enfold us all, Swing.

Roll a dim. a tempo
low, Love and make reply.
low, Love the night winds sigh.
To and fro,
To and fro, Out where the summer winds softly blow;

Swinging, swinging, la-zily swinging, higher and higher the swing will go. You above, I below,

Swinging together in measure slow Swing-ing, swing-ing, la-zily swing-ing, Sing-"ing of love in the long a-go, long a-go.

To and fro, to and fro, Swing-\ing to-geth-er in measure slow. You a\-bove, I be\-low, Sing-"ing of love in the long a-go. To and fro, and fro
