THE following collection of Christmas Carols, new and old, is put forth in the hope of providing a source, easily accessible, from which those who are so disposed may make choice of sound words, set to good music, and suited to the sacred season of our Lord's Nativity.

Considerable pains have been taken by the Editors and their friends to obtain traditional Carols hitherto unpublished, but without much success. For the greater part of the original matter here contained they are indebted to the kindness of those Composers, Authors, and Translators whose names appear in the Index: to whom, as well as to the friends before alluded to, they here offer their best thanks.

To these they have added, with two or three of their own, a selection of the best and most popular melodies in such collections as were at their disposal.

With this brief account of the purpose and nature of their undertaking they commend it to the hands of those orthodox lovers of music who desire to keep the Feast of Christmas with mirth which shall not overstep the bounds of reverence.

- 2 In Bethlehem, in Jewry,
 This blessed Babe was born,
 And laid within a manger,
 Upon this blessed morn;
 The which His Mother Mary,
 Did nothing take in scorn.
 O tidings, &c.
- 3 From God our Heavenly Father,
 A blessed Angel came;
 And unto certain Shepherds
 Brought tidings of the same:
 How that in Bethlehem was born
 The Son of God by Name.
 O tidings, &c.
- 4 "Fear not then," said the Angel,
 "Let nothing you affright,
 This day is born a Saviour
 Of a pure Virgin bright,
 To free all those who trust in Him
 From Satan's power and might."
 O tidings, &c.
- 5 The shepherds at those tidings
 Rejoicèd much in mind,
 And left their flocks a-feeding,
 In tempest, storm, and wind:
 And went to Bethlehem straightway,
 The Son of God to find.
 O tidings, &c.
- 6 And when they came to Bethlehem
 Where our dear Saviour lay,
 They found Him in a manger,
 Where oxen feed on hay;
 His Mother Mary kneeling down,
 Unto the Lord did pray.
 O tidings, &c.
- 7 Now to the Lord sing praises,
 All you within this place,
 And with true love and brotherhood
 Each other now embrace;
 This holy tide of Christmas
 All other doth deface.
 O tidings, &c.

The Manger Throne.

FOR VERSES 1, 4, 5.

mf

1. Like sil - ver lamps in a dis - tant shrine, The

mf

stars are spark - ling bright; The bells of the ci - ty of God ring out, For the Son of Ma - ry was born to - night; The gloom is past, and the morn at last Is coming with o - rient light.

- 4 The stars of heaven still shine as at first
 They gleamed on this wonderful night;
 The bells of the city of God peal out,
 And the Angels' song still rings in the height;
 And love still turns where the Godhead burns,
 Hid in Flesh from fleshly sight.
- 5 Faith sees no longer the stable-floor,
 The pavement of sapphire is there,
 The clear light of Heaven streams out to the world:
 And Angels of God are crowding the air;
 And Heaven and earth, through the spotless Birth,
 Are at peace on this night so fair.

FOR VERSES 2, 3.

2. Ne-ver fell me-lo-dies half so sweet As those which are filling the skies; And nev-er a pa-lace shone half so fair As the man-ger bed where our Sa-viour lies; No night in the year is half so dear As this which has end-ed our sighs.

- 3 Now a new Power has come on the earth,
 A match for the armies of Hell:
 A Child is born who shall conquer the foe,
 And all the spirits of wickedness quell;
 For Mary's Son is the Mighty One
 Whom the prophets of God foretell.

A Virgin unspotted.

1. A Virgin un - spot - ted, the Pro - phet fore - told, Should

- 2 At Bethlehem city in Jewry it was
That Joseph and Mary together did pass,
All for to be taxed with many one moe,
Great Cæsar commanded the same should be so.
Aye and therefore, &c.
- 3 But when they had entered the city so fair,
A number of people so mighty was there,
That Joseph and Mary, whose substance was small,
Could find in the inn there no lodging at all.
Aye and therefore, &c.
- 4 Then were they constrained in a stable to lie,
Where horses and asses they used for to tie:
Their lodging so simple they took it no scorn,
But against the next morning our Saviour was born.
Aye and therefore, &c.
- 5 The King of all kings to this world being brought,
Small store of fine linen to wrap Him was sought;
But when she had swaddled her young Son so sweet,
Within an ox manger she laid Him to sleep.
Aye and therefore, &c.
- 6 Then God sent an angel from Heaven so high,
To certain poor shepherds in fields where they lie,
And bade them no longer in sorrow to stay,
Because that our Saviour was born on this day.
Aye and therefore, &c.
- 7 Then presently after the shepherds did spy
Vast numbers of angels to stand in the sky;
They joyfully talkèd and sweetly did sing,
To God be all glory, our heavenly King.
Aye and therefore, &c.
- 8 To teach us humility all this was done,
And learn we from thence haughty pride for to shun:
A manger His cradle who came from above,
The great God of mercy, of peace, and of love.
Aye and therefore, &c.

Come, ye lofty.

Cheerful.
mf

1. Come, ye lof - ty, come, ye low - ly, Let your songs of
mf
 glad-ness ring; In a sta - ble lies the Ho - ly,
 In a man-ger rests the King: See in Ma - ry's arms re - pos - ing, Christ by high - est Heaven a - dored:
 Come, your cir - cle round Him clos - ing, Pi - ous hearts that love the Lord.

2.

Come, ye poor, no pomp of station
 Robes the Child your hearts adore:
 He, the Lord of all salvation,
 Shares your want, is weak and poor:
 Oxen, round about behold them;
 Rafters naked, cold, and bare.
 See the shepherds, God has told them
 That the Prince of Life lies there.

3.

Come, ye children, blithe and merry,
 This one Child your model make;
 Christmas holly, leaf, and berry,
 All be prized for His dear sake;
 Come, ye gentle hearts, and tender,
 Come, ye spirits, keen and bold;
 All in all your homage render,
 Weak and mighty, young and old.

4.

High above a star is shining,
 And the Wisemen haste from far:
 Come, glad hearts, and spirits pining:
 For you all has risen the star.
 Let us bring our poor oblations,
 Thanks and love and faith and praise:
 Come, ye people, come, ye nations,
 All in all draw nigh to gaze.

5.

Hark! the Heaven of heavens is ringing
 "Christ the Lord to man is born!"
 Are not all our hearts too singing,
 "Welcome, welcome, Christmas morn?"
 Still the Child, all power possessing,
 Smiles as through the ages past;
 And the song of Christmas blessing,
 Sweetly sinks to rest at last.

Come, tune your heart.

1. Come, tune your heart, To bear its part, And ce - le -

Let love in - spire The joy - ful choir, While to the God of Love glad hymns it rais - es, it rais - es.

2.

Exalt His Name;
With joy proclaim,
God loved the world, and through His Son forgave us;
Oh! what are we,
That, Lord, we see
Thy wondrous love, in Christ who died to save us!

3.

Your refuge place
In His free grace,
Trust in His Name, and day by day repent you;
Ye mock God's Word,
Who call Him Lord,
And follow not the pattern He hath lent you.

4.

O Christ, to prove
For Thee my love,
In brethren Thee my hands shall clothe and cherish;
To each sad heart
Sweet Hope impart,
When worn with care, with sorrow nigh to perish.

5.

Come, praise the Lord;
In Heaven are stored
Rich gifts for those who here His Name esteemèd;
Alleluia,
Alleluia;
Rejoice in Christ, and praise Him, ye redeemèd.

 And to the earth it gave great light,
 And so it continued both day and night.

 Three Wisemen came from country far;
 To seek for a King was their intent,
 And to follow the Star wherever it went.

This Star drew nigh to the north-west,
 O'er Bethlehem it took its rest,
 And there it did both stop and stay,
 Right over the place where Jesus lay.

Then entered in those Wisemen three,
 Full reverently upon their knee,
 And offered there, in His Presence,
 Their gold, and myrrh, and frankincense.

Then let us all with one accord,
 Sing praises to our Heavenly Lord,
 That hath made Heaven and earth of nought,
 And with His Blood mankind hath bought.

 And the wind blows stronger;

 Tread thou in them boldly:
 Thou shalt find the winter's rage

 Wealth or rank possessing,
 Ye who now will bless the poor,
 Shall yourselves find blessing.

And cleanse my soul with care.
'Till Thou art able to descry
Thy faultless image there.
