The gloom is past, and the morn at last
Is coming with orient light.

Never fell melody half so sweet
As those which are filling the skies.

And never a palace shone half so fair
As the manger bed where our Saviour lies.

Never night in the year is half so dear
As a tempo.

This which has ended our sighs, which has ended our sighs, No night in the year is half so dear, As this which has ended our sighs.

Never fell no lo dies half so sweet As those which are filling the skies, No night in the year is half so dear As this which has ended our sighs.
